

get along

- Are you getting along well with your co-workers?
- Do you and your sister get along?

get up

- Get up, it's 10am!
- Adam got me up at 6:30 in the morning by turning the music up really loud.

get off

- Can you get this spider off my shirt?
- We need to get off the bus at the next stop.

get across

- It's difficult to get humor across in another language.
- I hope I got my point across to you.

get on with

- Get your jacket on, it's going to be cold.
- Get on the bus #15 and go until Red Square.
- Let's get on with the party!

get over

- Get over it!
- Jennifer still didn't get over her breakup with Peter.
- Call me when you get over your flue.

get down to

- What it gets down to is that you gonna have to pay more if you want this service.
- Enough small talk. Let's get down to business.

get away with

- My brother gets away with everything!
- The bank robbers got away.
- At first it was rainy, but then clouds got away.

get by

- I lost my job, so I am having a hard time getting by this year.
- How are you getting by these days?

get out of

- Get out of there!
- How do I get this thing out?
- Can you help me get my books out of that box?

get

PHRASAL VERBS - THROW

PHRASAL VERBS WITH "GO"

Go through

Travel from one end of something to the other E.g. The train went through the tunnel.

Go down

Fall (down), fall to the floor
E.g. The boxer went down in the second round, after a blow to the chin.

Go out

Leave, especially a building
E.g. Please go out through the back door.

Go for

Try for, to attempt to reach
E.g. I'll go for the world record.

Go on

Continue in extent
E.g. The meeting seemed to go on forever.

Go forward

Move clocks ahead
E.g. The clocks go forward this weekend.

Go off

Explode
E.g. The bomb went off right after the president left his office.

Go into

Get involved in; to investigate or explore E.g. I don't want to go into the details now into

заглянуть, расследовать

- I looked into your profile the other day - you're quite popular!
- The police is looking into the murder.

for

искать

- I'm looking for my cat, have you seen it?
- When you reach my street, look for the only red house - that's where I live.

up

найти (словарь, интернет, глобус)

- If you don't know this word, you should look it up online.
- Look up! The sky is full of stars tonight.

after присмотреть,

поухаживать за

- Could you please look after my dog while I'm away?
- I'd love to come, but tonight I have to look after my grandma.

over

проверять

- If I were you I'd look over his file again
- When I'm camping, I look my shoes over before I put them on.

look up to уважать/смотреть вверх

- He looks up to his father a lot.
- look up to the sky
- we all should look up to our ancestors.

out

выглядывать,
бдуг!

- Look out of the window, it's snowing
- Look out, there is a snake in the room!

away

отворачиваться,
не смотреть

- Please don't look away!
- She looked away in disgrace.

forward to ожидать с радостью

- I am looking forward to traveling to New Zeland next year.
- Looking forward to hearing from you soon through просматривать, проглядывать

- Look through the newspaper, maybe there's something new
- I looked through my papers and found this interesting essay.

aprendeinglessila.com

aprendeinglessila.com

Cruzarse con, encontrarse con
I RAN ACROSS/INTO my ex girlfriend at the club

Prolongarse, durar, seguir hablando Maya's speech RAN ON for more than an hour

Quedarse sin
We have RUN OUT
OF milk

aprendeinglessila.com

Perseguir, correr tras
Why do dogs RUN
AFTER cats?

Escaparse, fugarse
The thief RAN AWAY
from the police

Postularse para ser elegido para un
puesto público
Mr. Jackson is RUNNING
FOR Senator

James was RUN OVER
by a car

aprendeinglesila.com

along

up with off

across

- We are going to the beach, would you like to c.a.?
- Come along! There's room for everyone!

- How did you c.up with it?
- Please c. up with the solution to this problem!

- Did that thing come off again?
- Wait! The handle came off, I can't open the door!

- They came across some lost Mayan ruins in the jungle of Mexico.
- He comes across as rather rude, but he isn't.

over

- Come over here!
- When are you coming over?
- My favorite band is coming over to town!

with

- This computer doesn't come with a printer.
- Who did you come here with?

out (of)

- Come out of there!
- When is this film going to come out?
- So, what came out of that idea of yours?

by

- Please c. by my place whenever you have some free time?
- Why don't you come by before the show?

along (with)

- How's the research paper coming along?
- How are you coming along with your guitar lessons?

out (with)

- Disney came out with a new cartoon!
- Microsoft is coming out with a new video game next month.

come

along

сопутствовать,
подходить

- This idea goes along well with my paper.
- Does the red wine go along with rabbit?

up

подниматься,
повышать

- Go up the hill until you reach the top.
- If my rent goes up again, I'm gonna have to move out!

back

вернуться

- When are you going back to your house?
- He went back home the same way he came.
- You have to go back!

away

уйти, уходить

- I yelled at the dogs to make them go away.
- If you don't go away, I'll call the police.

over

пройти,
просмотреть,
переместиться

- Let's go over this together again.
- Do you usually go over your notes before class?
- That didn't go over well..

out

прекратиться,
выбираться из
зону

- The fire went out after three days.
- They love to go out every Saturday night.

by

проходить мимо,
проходить (имя)

- We go by the coffee shop everyday.
- What name do you go by on Skype?

on with

продолжать

- I think we should go on with the meeting.
- How can I go on with this weather?
- Please, go on with your story! It's very nice!

for

намереваться, направляться

- Our team is going for the gold medal in the Olympics.
- You should go for it!
- I could go for pepperoni pizza tonight!
- She went there for fun.

down

понижаться, спуститься
уменьшить

- All prices went down again!
- They went down to Texas to visit Dallas.
- In Siberia the temperature goes down to -60°C

go

along

быть в хороших отношениях

- Are you getting along well with your co-workers?
- Do you and your sister get along?

up

вставай! / поднять

- Get up, it's 10am!
- Adam got me up at 6:30 in the morning by turning the music up really loud.

off

снять, сойти
отправить

- Can you get this spider off my shirt?
- We need to get off the bus at the next stop.

across

донести,
дать понять

- It's difficult to get humor across in another language.
- I hope I got my point across to you.

over

отнестись это,
справиться,
выздороветь

- Get over it!
- Jennifer still didn't get over her breakup with Peter.
- Call me when you get over your flue.

out (of)

выбраться,
вынуть, достать

- Get out of there!
- How do I get this thing out?
- Can you help me get my books out of that box?

by

выживать, справляться

- I lost my job, so I am having a hard time getting by this year.
- How are you getting by these days?

away (with)

всё сходит с рук,
скрыться, уйти

- My brother gets away with everything!
- The bank robbers got away.
- At first it was rainy, but then clouds got away.

on (with)

надеть, мириться,
сесть в транспорт,
продолжать

- Get your jacket on, it's going to be cold.
- Get on the bus #15 and go until Red Square.
- Let's get on with the party!

down (to)

короче говоря,
ближе к делу

- What it gets down to is that you gonna have to pay more if you want this service.
- Enough small talk. Let's get down to business.

get

up

to apply make up

- The actors make themselves up before going on stage.

to invent a story

- None of it is true, he made up this whole story!

to become friendly with someone again

- You should make up with your sister!
- Joe & Zoe made up and live together again

the composition of something

- The committee was made up of all the regional managers
- He is made up of old fashioned values.

To prepare smb or smth for use

- The room is ready, I just have to make up the bed for you.
- Make yourself up, we're leaving in 5 mins!

up for

to compensate for something; to replace

- He spent two weeks with his family to make up for his year long absence.
- I ruined your T-shirt, but I hope this new one I bought you makes up for it.

off

to hurry away, to escape

- The thieves had to make off in their car when the police arrived.

of

to understand, to find a reason

- I don't know what to make of her behaviour.
- Can you make anything of this movie? I don't get it at all.
- What d'you make of...?

out

Manage, deal with

- How did you make out on your statistics test?
- How is he making out with the recent death of his uncle?
- How d'you make it out?

out (with)

slang for to kissing and hugging

- Hey, I've seen you making out with Jennie!
- Baby, let's make out!

out to be to pretend, seem

- He m. himself out to be a big artist, but I've never seen his works.

into

to convert one thing into another

- He made his old garage into a bar.
- Lots of practice will make you into a fluent English speaker.

make

for

to move towards smth

- Make for those woods, a storm is approaching!
- She already made for home when I arrived.

to contribute, to cause, lead to

- Dante makes for a difficult reading;
- This book will m. for a great gift for him!
- Both players are pros, so it makes for a good game.

expressions with make

- The album is in the making.
- to make a fool of oneself;
- to make sure/certain smb does smth;
- I have to make myself known;
- to make a deal with smb about smth;
- Sorry I made fun of you earlier;
- I have to make myself known;
- Make up your mind!

Your Skype School
everywhere any time